Above all else, a master bedroom should radiate romantic vibes (and not just for aesthetic purposes). Think plush throws, gauzy canopy beds, mood lighting, and evocative artwork. From modern, unexpected spaces to classic sanctuaries, take a look at these romantic bedroom ideas for couples and singles alike. Then all you'll have to do is turn the lights down low.

Pile On Soft Layers

Have you ever wanted to crawl into a bed more than you have right now? The moody gray velvet walls and matching headboard bring a smokey, texturally rich allure and mystery to the otherwise white, bright, and airy space designed by Alison Pickart. No artwork is needed, as these walls speak for themselves.
