

Better Homes & Gardens

the TREND ISSUE
WHAT'S NEXT IN HOME, GARDEN, AND FOOD

HOST A GAME NIGHT
p. 98

Plus THE LATEST IN PAINT COLORS,
DESIGN IDEAS & FLAVORS YOU'LL CRAVE

PLANTS FOR EVERY ROOM
p. 92

CLEAR ACRYLICS
Jolly Table, $195;
hivemodern.com

ARC LAMPS
George Kovacs Polished
Chrome Arc Floor Lamp, $378; lampsplus.com

velvet TEXTILES

The fabric's sheen came to life under disco lights. Now it dresses up throw pillows, blankets, and chairs. Heads up: Get ready to embrace crushed velvet.

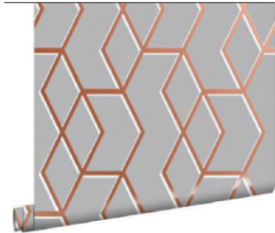

CANTILEVERED FURNITURE
Alchemy Dining Armchair, $199; article.com

SMOKY GLASS
Smoke Globe Vase
with Brass Stand, $40 (4");
jungleeny.com

'70s GLAM

METALLIC WALLPAPER
Archetype Gray and Rose
Gold Wallpaper, $100/roll;
grahambrown.com

chrome & TUBULAR

High-shine chrome—especially in thin but sturdy tubular forms—looks luxe propping up chairs, tables, and lighting. (See lamp, above, as evidence.)

It's the decade that put the fun in funky with shaggy textiles, shiny finishes, geometric shapes, and dyn-o-mite colors.

Ready to get back in the groove?

Here's your '70s checklist.

CRYSTAL GEODES
Quartz Object, $80
(8" tall); cb2.com

Designer Alison Pickart speculates giant crystal clusters will be a top 2019 trend.

SHEARLING AND SHAG
Sherpa Fleece Pillow, $49;
urbanoutfitters.com

SUPERGRAPHICS
Turnstyle Retro Shag Rug, $379 (5'x7'6");
shopthenovogratz.com

BRIGHT ORANGE
Still groovy but modernized with soft coral undertones. Orange Slice 2002-1B Valspar

cube FURNITURE

Look for big, chunky blocks of furniture, especially low coffee tables.

“SUDDENLY THE '70S ARE BACK, AND THE LENS OF HISTORY ALLOWS US TO SEE WHAT AN AMAZING DECADE IT WAS—FULL OF EXUBERANT ENERGY AND INNOVATION.”

DESIGNER ANDREW MARTIN

MARKET EDITOR: MELISSA COLGAN