

10 Sunny Breakfast Nooks To Start The Day Off Right

BY SARAH SHELTON / APRIL 20, 2020

Don't overlook the ever-present dining banquette popping up in homes all around the country, from city apartments to sprawling second homes, from modern interpretations to bright little enclaves.

DINNER WITH A VIEW

Photo by Aaron Leitz Along with the designer Alison Pickart, architect Stephen Sutro helped place every piece of artwork, including the painting of oranges by Charley Brown in the breakfast nook. A custom banquette covered in Manuel Canovas fabric is positioned at a vantage point from which to enjoy sweeping city vistas. The sculptural table is from Hewn, and the Halo pendant is by John Liston. (Tour the home.)
