

INTERIOR DESIGN®

JUNE 30
2020

take flight!
spring market tabloid

1

lighting

4

2

3

Ichiro Iwasaki
for Vibia

product Pin
standout Punctuating a lean steel line, an aluminum dome in minimalist matte black or cream rotates to shed LED light where desired. Combine them into multiprong sconces to make abstract wall art. vibia.com

Alison Pickart
for Sculptech

product Sapling
standout The 5-foot-tall table lamp's hammered-bronze stem terminates in a canopy of white carbon-fiber petals lit by color-changing LEDs that can be programmed to respond to sound and movement. Through Alison Pickart. alisonpickart.com

Alain Ellouz
of Atelier Alain Ellouz

product Cosy
standout Light emanates from a slim brass-lined aperture on the underside of this gentle alabaster arc—spanning 30.7 inches—as well as glowing through its thin stone surface. atelier-alain-ellouz.com

Lucie Koldova and Dan Yeffet for Brokis

product Muffins
standout A special edition released to celebrate the collection's 10-year anniversary combines a base crafted of wenge or rosewood with a glass shade colored olive green, light pink, violet, or smoke gray. brokis.cz

BOTTOM, SECOND FROM RIGHT: CHRISTEL MARTIN